

BY LAW NO. 1

A by-law relating generally to the conduct and affairs of
OTTAWA AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

BE IT ENACTED as a by-law of the OTTAWA AMATEUR RADIO CLUB
as follows,-

HEAD OFFICE

1. The Head Office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario, and at such place therein as the directors may from time to time determine.

SEAL

2. The seal, an impression whereof is stamped in the margin hereof, shall be the corporate seal of the Corporation.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

3. (a) To establish, maintain and conduct an association for the recreation and convenience of members of the Corporation and to promote an interest in amateur radio among members of the Corporation and others in the Ottawa regional area.

(b) To promote, arrange and sponsor meetings and other activities of a technical or social nature for members of the Corporation and their friends, and to offer, grant and contribute towards prizes, awards and distinctions in connection therewith.

(c) To promote amateur radio techniques of experimenting, operating, communicating and otherwise so as to advance technical competence and achievement in amateur radio among members of the Corporation, and to encourage and assist members in attaining technical qualifications required for a certificate of proficiency in amateur radio.

(d) To assist and co-operate with local and other authorities to establish and maintain radio communications as a public service in times of emergency.

Board of Directors

4. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a board of 10 directors, each of whom at the time his election or within 10 days thereafter and thereafter and throughout his term of office shall be a member of the Corporation. The membership, ut the annual general meeting, shall elect several directors to the following offices: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and three Directors-at-large. The immediate past president, shall be a member of the board. In addition, both the Editor of the club bulletin and the Chairman of the Repeater Committee, who shall be appointed by the board, shall be members of the board. Each director shall hold office until the first annual meeting after he shall have been elected or until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The whole board shall be retired at each annual meeting, but shall be eligible for re-election if otherwise qualified. The election may be by a show of hands unless a ballot be demanded by a member. The members of the Corporation, may, by resolution passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast, at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to pass such n resolution has been given, remove any director before the expiration of his term of office, and may, by a majority of the votes cast at that meeting, elect any person in his stead for the remainder of his term.

VACANCIES, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5. Vacancies on the board of directors, however caused, may so long as a quorum of directors remain in office, be filled by the directors from among the qualified members of the Corporation, if they shall see fit to do so, otherwise such vacancy shall be filled at the next annual meeting of the members at which the directors for the ensuing year are elected, but if there is not a quorum of directors, the remaining directors shall forthwith call a meeting of the members to fill vacancy. If the number of directors is increased between the terms, a vacancy or vacancies, to the number of the authorized increase, shall thereby be deemed to have occurred, which may be filled in the manner above provided.

QUORUM AND MEETINGS, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6. A majority of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. Except as otherwise required by law, the board of directors may hold its meetings at such place or places as it may from time to time determine. No formal notice of any such meeting shall be necessary if all the directors are present, or if those absent have signified their consent to the meeting being held in their absence. Directors' meetings may be formally called by the President or Vice-President or by the Secretary on direction of the President or Vice-President, or by the Secretary on direction in writing of two directors. Notice of such meetings shall be delivered, telephone or telegraphed to each director not less than one day before the meeting is to take place or shall be mailed to each director not less than two days before the meeting is to take place. The statutory declaration of the Secretary or President that notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice. The board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings at an hour to be named and of such regular meeting no notice need be sent. A directors' meeting may also be held, without notice, immediately following the annual meeting of the Corporation. The directors may consider or transact any business either special or general at any meeting of the board.

ERRORS IN NOTICE, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7. No error or omission in giving such notice for a meeting of directors shall invalidate such meeting or invalidate or make void any proceedings taken or had at such meeting and any director may at any time waive notice of any such meeting and any ratify and approve of any or all proceedings taken or had thereat.

VOTING, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8. Questions arising at any meeting of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman, in addition to his original vote, shall have a second or casting vote. All votes at any such meeting shall be taken by ballot if so demanded by any director present, but if no demand be made, the vote shall be taken in the usual way by assent or dissent. A declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution. In the absence of the President his duties may be performed by the Vice-President or such other director as the board may from time to time appoint for the purpose.

POWERS

9. The directors of the Corporation may administer the affairs of the Corporation in all things and make or cause to be made for the Corporation, in its name, any kind of contract which the Corporation may lawfully enter into and, save as hereinafter provided, generally, may exercise all such other powers and do all such other acts and things as the Corporation is by its charter or otherwise authorized to exercise and do.
